Chantel Marie Lagergren was born on February 19, 1990. She is the daughter of Ralph and Dawn Lagergren. She has two siblings, Chance and Sydney. She has four dogs, Diamond, Haily, Brison and Brie. Along with Moe, the bird. Chantel is involved in Pep club and Cheer/Dance. Some of Chantel's hobbies include work, dance and hanging out with her friends. After high school Chantel is going to attend Bethany College, majoring in vocal performance. She received a scholarship for their dance team. Her favorite teacher is "Mr. Kerwood, because he has taught me so much this year. He is a good person and he rocks!" Favorite class includes Choir, "because singing is my passion." Chantel admires her dad the most, "He believes in following his dreams and has taught me to do so as well. He never gives up and is strong even in hard times." Her favorite candy is "dark chocolate" and her favorite music is "country." If Chantel could be any animal she would be a sea otter, "they are so graceful in the water."
