Editor-in-Chief

Jill Marie Flach was born on August 24, 1990 to Ken and Theresa Flach. She has two older brothers, Joe and John. She also has a dog, which is her favorite animal, named Pepper. Jill can be seen working in Alma at Gambino's Pizza and Sonic in Wamego.

If Jill could live during any time period she would choose either the 1960's or the 1980's. Her favorite food is anything Mexican, and she likes Kit-Kats. Some classes that she enjoys are Mrs. Breiner's. If she could take a trip anywhere, she would either go to Africa or South America, because they are both pretty and different from the U.S.

In ten years Jill sees herself having a good job and settling down. The people that she admires most are her mom and Jean Riley because they have been through a lot. After high school Jill plans on becoming a nurse. She will attend Highland and Manhattan Area Tech.
