Editor-in-Chief

John Wayne Henderson is the son of Genevieve and John Henderson. He was born on June 21, 1990. He is involved in football, FCA, baseball, and Big Brothers/Big Sisters. When he is not busy with those activities, John enjoys working at Alma Food Mart or driving around with friends.

John has too many high school memories to count, but if he had to choose one, it would be when he went camping with his fellow seniors during Spring Break. His favorite classes include newspaper, technical writing, and College English, because he likes to write. John's hidden talent is that he can do accents. His favorite candy is Twix. If he could choose any time period to live in he would choose the 1970's, "a lot of historical events happened then and it sounds like people had a lot of fun then" says John.

In ten years he sees himself writing for a newspaper, having a wife and some kids, and living in a big house by Lake Wabaunsee. After high school John will be attending Washburn University and majoring in journalism.
