Lindsey Wertzberger was born to Janet and Rob Wertzberger on November 10, 1989. She has two brothers, Jared and AJ, one sister, Angie, and a brother-in-law, Anthony.

After school, Lindsey likes to barrel race, work, and go to rodeos. She is also a member of FFA, FCA, and 4-H. Her favorite teacher is Mr. Davis because she have a lot of fun in his classes and he takes them places for FFA. Her favorite class is Agricultural Science because they have a lot of fun and they learn a lot.

Lindsey's favorite animal is a horse. She says they are beautiful and they have always been her favorite. Pizza is her favorite food because it never gets old, and if she could choose one tree to be, she would be a cedar tree, because they smell so good.

Lindsey's sister Angie is who she admires most. Lindsey says Angie is a very outgoing person and a great role model. "She is always there for me in good times and bad." If Lindsey could go anywhere in the world, she would take a trip to Texas so she could see her sister and go to the cowboy-cowgirl museum.

If Lindsey had one million dollars, she would build a really big barn and fill it with barrel horses.

Lindsey's plans after high school are to go to college for either RN or EMT, and hopes that in ten or twenty years she is either one of those things and making a lot of money.
