Quintinn “QBaby” Johnson was born to Trina Cade and Darry Johnson Sr. on March 20, 1990. QBaby has a sister, Monica Graham age 20, and a brother Darryl Johnson Jr. age 18. Q plans to go to Coffeerville to cheer after high school, or he will go to K-State. He participates in Pep Club, Cheerleading and Baseball. Q’s favorite animal is any bird that can fly because he thinks that would be the best way to clear your mind and be free. His favorite food is pizza because it tastes good. He has a pameranian named Midnight. His favorite teacher is Mrs. Wingfield because she’s always been there for him, and his favorite class is art. Quintin’s favorite high school memory so far is the time Podge fell out of his chair in French class and almost the whole school heard it. In ten years Q hopes to be famous with a record deal, and in twenty years he wants three kids, a wife, a house in Florida and to be a psychologist. He admires his mom most because she’s never given up hope. Q can secretly blow bubbles off his tongue. His favorite music is R&B and his favorite movie is “Scream”. If he had $1 Million he would pay for college.
