

Work Study Cautions and Release Form Warning, Agreement to Obey Instructions

I am aware that work experience can be a potentially dangerous activity and that participating will be a potentially dangerous with possible risk of injury. Because of the potential dangers of the work-study activity, I recognize the importance of following supervisors' instructions at all times while at the work-study site.

Students have the option with parent approval of transporting themselves to their work location. When that option is not appropriate transportation will be provided by the school. Students who drive must stay at the work site for the entire time. If lunch occurs during work tech we, student and parent, agree to arrange to eat at the location.

That I, the undersigned parent, for an in consideration of the privilege of my undersigned dependent being able to participate in a work-study activity at and for Wamego Special Services Cooperative, (USD 320, USD 323, USD 329) for the school year 2008, hereby covenant and agree to release and forever discharge ___ School, its agents, servants, employees and work-study sponsors, School Board and its members, from any an all claims, demands, losses, damages, costs, expenses, and attorney's fees for injury to or death to the undersigned dependent resulting from, growing out of, caused by, or arising in any manner out of participating in the work-study activity sponsored by and for these Schools.

This Warning, Agreement to Obey Instructions and Release is applicable to all potential work-study assignments made by each school who participates in Wamego Special Services Cooperative.

We, the UNDERSIGNED, having read and understood the Warning, the Agreement to Obey Instruction, and the Release, do agree and consent to the participation in work-study activities at and for Work Tech class 2008. I execute it voluntarily and with full knowledge of its significance.
